

North Plains Chamber of Commerce Minutes for December 14th, 2010

Those attending: Patti Burns, Loch Lolly, Bridget Sorensen; Joanna Mehaffey, West Coast Bank; Steve Centoni, Doorways Consulting; Stewart King, TriStar Properties; Dennis Brown, Portable Welding & More; Don Otterman, City of North Plains; Sue Cropp, Lakeview Farms; Allegra Gordon, Impact sign Company, Don Maltase; Ana Sigh Gill, North Plains Senior Plaza; Ray Deeth, Banks Chamber.

Steve Centoni called the meeting to order and introductions were made.

Jingle report: Patti reported that the event went well considering the wet weather, not as many parade participants but there were lots of people watching from their homes as the parade went by and the crowd at Jessie Mays was about the same as previous years.

City Update: Don Otterman, The city and outlying areas had a Quest outage Monday morning about 11:30; the phones and internet were out until early this morning.

The city has three new City Council members Glenn Warren Mike Broome and Mike Demagalski.

The middle of January the city should have the new North Plains Police Chief. The Glencoe Rd widening project, from Highland ct. to Commercial st. will be done after the end of the year with the final paving being done next spring when the weather is warmer.

Our Guest speaker was Jeff Korte, corporate security officer from West Coast Bank, he gave an overview of what kind of security will need for you business

Door Prize Drawing: The pot was $300. The name drawn was Tony Spiering from Valley Machine, he were not in attendance so the pot grows to $325.00 for next month.

The next meeting will be Tuesday, January 11, 2011